Samuel S. Stratton, Ph.D., LL.D. . . President of Middlebury College

Dr. Freeman
Stephen A. Freeman, Ph.D., LL.D., L.H.D. . . Vice-President, and Director of the Language Schools

MRS. BARBARA FILAN, A.B. . . . . . . . . Sec’y. of the Language Schools
History  The Middlebury College Language Schools were the pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages in this country. The German School was founded in 1915, followed by the French and Spanish Schools in 1916 and 1917 respectively. These schools represented a distinctive contribution to educational progress in America, and quickly won for Middlebury an international reputation. The German School was reopened in 1931; the Italian School was added in 1932, and the Russian School in 1945.

The Middlebury Idea  Thorough training in the use of the foreign language is the foundation of Middlebury's reputation. These five schools aim to give a mastery of the spoken and written language, and a coordinated knowledge of the life, institutions, literature, history, and culture of the foreign country. Success hinges upon the consistent enforcement of the basic Middlebury rule—the segregation of students from contact with English; complete concentration upon the foreign language; exclusive use of the language in and out of the classroom; and careful attention to the individual needs of each student. Each school has its separate residences and dining halls and a faculty of native instructors. During the entire session, the foreign language is the sole medium of communication in work and play. From the day of arrival, students are pledged to speak the foreign language.

Objectives  The schools have long been devoted to the intensive preparation of teachers of languages. At present, the serious shortage of well-trained language teachers makes this function even more significant. The schools have also provided trained linguists for our armed services, for many specialized government agencies, and for scientific research. Language training is essential for those who participate in international organizations, whether political, military, or cultural. It is now recognized that a greatly increased study of foreign languages by the American public is in the national interest. Middlebury offers ideal conditions for such study. The fundamental ideal of the Language Schools of Middlebury College is to help achieve a durable peace and real international cooperation, based on an understanding of our cultural heritage and the thought processes of our neighbors in a small world.
Location  The Middlebury Language Schools are located in a lovely Vermont countryside, at the foot of the Green Mountains, twenty miles from Lake Champlain. They occupy the campus of Middlebury College, founded in 1800 and still one of the most charming of New England colleges. The summer climate is delightful, with clear dry breezes and cool nights.

No college in the East offers more attractive opportunities for outdoor recreation than are found at Middlebury in summer. The program of studies leaves late afternoons and week ends free. Groups of students frequently spend an afternoon at a lakeside or hiking in the mountains. Weekend hiking on the celebrated Long Trail of the Green Mountains is popular. Swimming may be enjoyed at Lake Dunmore. Tennis and golf are available. Lake Champlain, Mount Mansfield, Ticonderoga, the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, or the White Mountains: any of these can be visited in a day's trip.

Atmosphere  The schools endeavor to make everything in the life of a student during his stay contribute as effectively and as pleasantly as possible to the mastery of the foreign language. Similarity of aim among students fosters good comradeship and an esprit de corps; while constant association with instructors at the dining tables, in songs and games, on hikes and picnics, no less than in the classroom, brings both inspirational and intellectual stimulus. Regular programs of musical concerts, informal sings, foreign films, dramatic presentations, outings and sports are organized. A high ratio of instructors to students is maintained, approximately one to eight.

Admission  All the schools are essentially graduate schools; and the courses are generally of an advanced nature, requiring advanced preparation and real linguistic ability. A few undergraduates may be accepted if they are strongly recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation. Students may enter without examinations and without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited to their advancement.

The Pledge  No student will be admitted to a school unless he is able and willing to use only the language of the school, during the entire session, wherever he may be. This rule, which is a cherished and unique tradition of the schools, and which is a fundamental of the Middlebury method, is strictly enforced from the moment the student enrolls. It holds good for the individual dormitory rooms, all extra-curricular activities, excursions and picnics. It is all-inclusive. Students may use English in their dealings with the people of the village, but even in these cases, students must not speak English to each other. At the opening of the schools, each student will be required to sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The dean reserves the right to dismiss students who willfully break it. Only the director or the dean may grant temporary release, upon occasions which may warrant it. If, even after the opening of school, a student is found to be unable to comply with the rules of the school, the administration reserves the right to request him to withdraw and to refund the fees paid.

Academic Status The quality of instruction offered at the Middlebury Schools is well known. As compared with foreign travel or study, a summer session here is more economical, provides courses better suited to the needs of American teachers, and gives an uninterrupted and intensive training not found in foreign institutions. At the same time, such study furnishes the indispensable preparation for study in the foreign land. The summer of 1957 brought students from forty-five different states and ten foreign countries, including Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Nebraska, Oregon, and Texas. Two hundred thirty-two colleges and universities were represented. Sixty-nine per cent of the students held degrees, and twenty per cent held the Master's degree or the Doctorate. The majority of the students are candidates for advanced degrees. Ninety-five Master’s degrees and two Doctorates were awarded in August, 1957.

Equipment The Language Laboratory and Phonetics Center is shared by all the schools. It is completely equipped with the most modern tape-recorders and play-backs, disc-cutting recorders, electric pick-ups, and large collections of recordings on tape and discs. It has thirty individual listening rooms, with trained assistants in charge.

The new Wright Memorial Theatre, just completed near Le Château, will be shared by all the schools. Its fine auditorium, stage, dramatics equipment, and classrooms make a splendid addition to the college facilities.

The College Library has extensive collections of books and magazines in all five foreign languages. All students have stack privileges. Each school has its own Bookshop, bringing attractive offerings of books direct from the foreign country. Each school also presents its own collections of realia, illustrative material, and teaching aids.

Credits Each course meeting daily carries two semester hours of credit. Students who wish credits, transcripts, or recommendations must take the final examinations at the close of the session. Not more than six credits may be gained in one summer by an undergraduate, and not more than eight credits by a graduate student. A graduate student must receive a grade of “B” in a course in order to obtain credit for that course. The undergraduate passing grade is “C,” subject to the regulations of the student’s own college.

The Master’s Degree Candidates must hold a baccalaureate degree from an approved college. To obtain the degree of Master of Arts, an approved program of thirty credits is necessary, usually requiring four summers. Twenty of the thirty credits must be earned at Middlebury, but students transferring six or more credits from other institutions may complete the Master's degree in three summers. See the inside back cover for information about the Graduate Schools of French and Spanish abroad.

Students desiring to transfer graduate credits earned at other institutions should send the transcripts to the dean of their school before the opening of the session. Graduate credits transferred from other institutions toward a Middlebury degree expire and may no longer be so counted after ten years have elapsed since the study was done. Effective with students who begin graduate work after 1956, graduate credits earned at Middlebury College toward a Master's degree expire and may no longer be so counted after ten years have elapsed since the study was done. Study in a foreign country in courses approved by the dean may be counted. Six credits may be allowed for an equivalent of ninety hours of class exercises followed by examinations. Six credits is the maximum allowed for a single summer session of foreign study. Twenty credits must be earned in the major language; ten may be earned in related subjects approved by the dean. A student while an undergraduate may earn only ten credits in graduate work applicable toward an eventual Master's degree at Middlebury. Students desiring to count credits taken at Middlebury toward degrees to be secured elsewhere should obtain permission to do so from the institution to which they wish the credits transferred. Degrees are conferred in August or at the Commencement following the completion of the work. A fee of $15 is required for the diploma.

The Degree of Doctor of Modern Languages  Middlebury College also offers, through the Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). The main requirements are a thorough knowledge of a major language, and its literature; two minor languages; the equivalent of a year's resident study beyond the Master's degree; a year of study in a foreign country; and a thesis written in the major language. Full details will be sent on request.

Living Accommodations  Students live in the college dormitories, and board is provided by the college. All rooms are completely furnished by the college; blankets, sheets and towels are supplied. Arrangements for personal laundry may be made after arrival. No accommodations for married couples are available. Students should have their mail addressed to their house of residence. Students are not encouraged to live in town, because in so doing they fail to receive the full benefit of the Middlebury method. Students who may have a valid reason for preferring to live in town must receive permission from the dean of their school.

Since dormitory accommodations are limited, students are urged to apply as early as possible. When accepted, they should return the room reservation card immediately. Acceptance as a student does not guarantee dormitory accommodation.

Health Service  There is an Infirmary on the campus directed by a resident graduate nurse. She holds regular office hours, and is on call at all times in case of emergency. This service is free to all enrolled students. When the nature of a student's illness requires the services of a doctor, or hospitalization, or special medication, the student assumes all the financial obligations involved, as his fees to the college do not cover them.

Transportation Middlebury is halfway between Burlington and Rutland, Vermont. Students not arriving by automobile will go via the N. Y. Central to Albany, N. Y.; or via the Boston and Maine to Bellows Falls, Vt.; or via the Vt. Central to Essex Junction (Burlington); and make bus connections on the Vermont Transit Lines to Middlebury. Bus time-tables will be provided on request. There is at present no railroad passenger service direct to Middlebury. There is scheduled airplane service to Burlington from Boston via Northeast Airlines and from New York via Colonial Airlines. Baggage should be sent by railway express.

Opening of the Session All the schools will open the session of 1958 on Friday, June 27, and will continue until August 14. The houses of residence will open to receive students on Friday, June 27, and lunch will be served at 12:30 p. m. No guests can be received earlier. Members of the faculty, and waiters or waitresses may, however, occupy their rooms on Thursday night, June 26. All houses will close after lunch, Thursday noon, August 14, and no guests can be accommodated after that time. Commencement exercises will be held on Tuesday evening, August 12.

Enrollment Procedure Immediately upon arrival, each student should report to the office of his school for enrollment and selection of courses. The offices will be open on Friday and Saturday, June 27 and 28. Students should then pay their bill at the Office of the Bursar in Old Chapel. The Language Schools Office is on the third floor of the Old Chapel. The first assemblies of the schools are held on Sunday evening, June 29; all students are required to attend. Classes begin at 8:00 Monday morning, June 30.

Fees The administration reserves the right to make any changes without notice in courses, staff, living arrangements, etc. The following information about fees should be carefully noted:

Rates Rates in all the schools vary according to single or double occupancy of rooms. The inclusive fee for registration, tuition, board and room will be from $325 to $365. The tuition fee for students rooming in town is $175. A student's entire bill is payable at the opening of the session. Students are urgently advised to avoid inconvenience by paying their bill in advance by mail; otherwise by bringing all money for fees in the form of money orders, express checks, or cashier's checks. Checks should be made payable to Middlebury College.

Laboratory Fee All students enrolled in courses in phonetics, pronunciation, and diction, or who wish to make regular use of the facilities of the Language Laboratory, will pay a laboratory fee of $3.

Registration Fee Each accepted applicant must pay a $35 registration fee when requested by the Language Schools Office. This fee will be credited to the student's total bill and an applicant is considered officially registered only when he has paid this fee. It is required of every student. No dormitory space is assigned until this fee is received. The fee will be refunded only if notice of cancellation is received by the Secretary of the Language Schools before May 15; after May 15 no refund will be made.

Auditors All courses in a school are open to auditing at any time without charge by members of that school, or to members of another of the Language Schools on permission of both the respective deans. Visitors to Middlebury, not members of a school, may be permitted to enroll as auditors, on payment of the fee of $20 a week or $75 for four or more weeks, arrangements to be made in the Language Schools Office. All such auditors are not entitled to take part in class discussions, nor to receive the attention of the professor. Auditors may also attend social events and evening entertainments. To enroll as a participating member of a course, a student must pay the full tuition charge. Guests of students cannot be accommodated in the college dormitories.

Enrollment in Two Schools A student enrolled in one school may also enroll for credit in another school, on payment of a fee of $25. per course, if by reason of his proficiency, he receives the consent of the deans of both schools.

Late Enrollment All students are required to enroll and pay all fees not later than the first day of instruction. Enrollment after that day will be accepted only by special permission secured in advance from the dean, and will be subject to a fine of $3.00 for the first day and $1.00 additional for each day late during the first week of classes, after which no enrollments will be accepted. Rooms reserved for students will not be held after the second day of instruction unless permission has been secured in advance from the dean.

Transcript Fees One official transcript of a summer's work will be issued without charge on written request to the College Registrar. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. No transcripts will be issued or grades given to students financially indebted to the college, until satisfactory arrangements have been made at the Office of the Bursar.

Refunds Owing to fixed obligations for instruction and maintenance, persons arriving late or leaving school before the close of the session must not expect reimbursement of any charges. No allowances will be made for week-end absences.

Veterans Veterans may attend the Language Schools under Public Laws 16, 346 or 550. If a veteran wishes to enroll, he should apply immediately for a Certificate of Eligibility from his local Veterans Administration Agency and send it at once to the Secretary of the Language Schools. Veterans under P.L. 550 should come prepared to pay their fees in full.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Old Chapel, Middlebury College, Middlebury Vermont. The telephone number is DUDley 8-4903. Correspondence concerning admission to a particular school, courses, credits and self-help should be addressed to the Director or Dean of the school concerned, as indicated.
The French School, which will hold its forty-third session this summer, mourns the death in Paris, last fall, of Professor André Morize, its dynamic Director and guiding spirit from 1925 to 1946. The School believes that the best way to honor his memory is to carry on his work, and to maintain the high standards he set which have made the School a center of French culture in the United States.

The courses in language, literature and civilization will again be entrusted to a select group of competent native teachers, including a few coming directly from France. We are happy to announce the appointment as Visiting-Professor of M. Roland Barthes, a leader in the younger generation of critics, who will bring a fresh and stimulating viewpoint to his study of Everyday Life in Today's France. The School also welcomes Professor Morisset of Paris, Mme Bashour of Hunter College and other new members, as well as the return of Professor Boorsch of Yale, Mme Leymarie and Mme Perrot-Orangers.

1. Language

11. ADVANCED FRENCH STYLISTICS. Designed to give advanced students a finer feeling for French style, a sense for shades of expression, a mastery of certain difficulties not discussed in more elementary courses. Theoretical lessons in stylistics; advanced exercises in translation. Strictly limited to twenty students. 8:00 M. GUILLOTON.

12. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. For students who, having a good knowledge of French, have not yet mastered certain peculiarities of grammar and phrasing. Texts of increasing difficulty translated into French; class discussions. Sections limited to twenty students. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00 MM. GUIET, FORGUE, Mlle BRUNEAU.

13. COMPOSITION AND ADVANCED GRAMMAR. Designed to train students in the use of correct French. Grammar is reviewed in the light of actual usage and abundant practice is provided in writing. 8:00, 10:00, 12:00 Mlle HUNTZBUCHLER, M. HOFFMANN, M. VIOLLET.

14. INTERMEDIATE COMPOSITION AND REVIEW GRAMMAR. A thorough and systematic review of syntax and the fundamental principles of grammar, for less advanced students. (Undergraduate credit only.) 9:00, 11:00, 12:00 Mlle HUNTZBUCHLER, M. HOFFMANN, M. VIOLLET.

Note: A written test will be given early in all the Language Courses. According to the results of this test, students will be assigned to the proper section of the course in which they registered, or to another course in this group.
II. Phonetics and Diction

Directeur d'études pour la phonétique, M. Marty
Directeur d'études pour la diction, Mme Moussu

22. ADVANCED PHONETICS. For students with a good knowledge of phonetics and a sufficiently correct pronunciation. Aims to teach the pronunciation accepted among cultivated French people, and to illustrate the practical application of the theory of Phonetics to its teaching. 8:00, 9:00 Mmes Bashour, Moussu.

23. INTERMEDIATE PHONETICS. A continued study of practical phonetics, with its application to personal pronunciation. Correct formation of French sounds; sounds in isolation and combination, oral exercises and ear training. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 12:00 Mme Bashour, MM. Leconte, Malecot, Marty.

24. ELEMENTARY PHONETICS. A scientific approach to French pronunciation. Methodical comparison of English and French sounds. For students who never studied phonetics, or never attacked the problem of their pronunciation in a scientific manner. (Undergraduate credit only.) 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 Mme Bashour, MM. Leconte, Malecot, Marty.

25. DICTION, INTONATION, ELOCUTION. Intended to complete the work done in phonetics. Aims to impart, not an artificial pronunciation, but the expressive and musical shading for French diction, used in ordinary conversation as well as in public reading or speaking. Previous training in Phonetics required. 9:00, 10:00 Mme Moussu.

NOTES: 1. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, placement tests will be given at the beginning, and each section will be limited to fifteen students.
2. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, intensive aural-oral training is provided, and all students are required to make regular use of the facilities of the Language Laboratory.

III. Methods and Professional Training

33. FRENCH CLUB ACTIVITIES. The organization of a successful Cercle Français, and its problems: creating and maintaining a French atmosphere, stimulation of student interest, research and utilization of suitable material: songs, games, dramatizations, photographs, films, etc. Typical programs worked out in full. Texts: Ruth Morize, Le Cercle Français; Jameson, Le Cercle Français. 10:00 Miss Crandall.

Note: All the students of the School, whether or not directly interested in teaching, have access to the facilities of the Realia Museum, and are urged to consult Miss Crandall, in charge of the Museum, about special problems and needs. (See page 17).

34. INTRODUCTION TO LANGUAGE LABORATORY METHODS. A "seminar" in the use of scientific equipment and its applications to the teaching of grammar, aural comprehension and self-expression in an integrated form. Three major points will be stressed: 1. a study of the various types of equipment now available, and the various types of laboratories that can be installed; 2. an evaluation of the aural-oral methods developed so far; 3. a study of the visual aids in existence and of those that could be adapted to aural-oral methods. Enrollment limited. 12:00 M. Marty.
IV. Literature and Civilization

Directeur d'études, M. GUILLOTON

41. EVERYDAY LIFE IN THE FRANCE OF TODAY. A sociological analysis of the "French-Way-of-Life" in today's France, with its literary and artistic overtones: the general structure of society; Paris and the Provinces; work and leisure patterns, community trends, emotional outlets; housing, clothing, and food problems; transportation habits; the family, religion, the Press, etc.

11:00 M. BARTHES.

44. FRENCH CIVILIZATION IN A CHANGING WORLD. The geographical, historical, economic, social, and cultural factors that make an understanding of France and its civilization possible will be studied in the light of the problems which France has to meet, faced as she is with the challenge of a fast changing world.

9:00 M. BOURCIER.

46. CONTEMPORARY FRENCH THEATRE. The principal aspects of dramatic activity in France from 1900 to the present. Théâtres du boulevard, Théâtres subventionnés, Scènes d'avant-garde. Plays representative of present tendencies will be studied through outside readings, class discussions, and written reports.

10:00 M. COINDREAU.

51. STUDIES IN THE CONTEMPORARY FRENCH NOVEL. A study of the various kinds of "publics" and their authors: the "popular," the "traditional" novels; foreign influences; Malraux, Céline; Sartre and the "existentialist" novel; Camus; the "roman d'avant-garde"; and an examination of the new writing techniques.

12:00 M. BARTHES.

53. THE FRENCH ROMANTIC THEATRE. Origins and developments: foreign influences, theories; the evolution of staging and acting; with special emphasis on the following representative works: Hugo, Préface de Cromwell, Hernani, Ruy Blas; Dumas, Antony; Vigny, Othello, Chatterton; Musset, Lorenzaccio, Comédies et Proverbes.

10:00 M. MORISSET.

54. FRENCH ROMANTICISM FROM 1801 TO 1843. From Atala to Les Burgraves: a study of the main currents which constitute French Romanticism, with special attention to the works of Chateaubriand, Lamartine, Vigny, Hugo, Musset, Gautier, Balzac and Stendhal.

12:00 M. BOORSCH.

57. THE FRENCH THEATRE OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY. The evolution of the tragi-comedy and the pastoral, and the development of the tragedy; with the main emphasis on the masterpieces of Pierre Corneille and Racine, and incidental studies of plays by Racan, Mairet, Rotrou, Thomas Corneille and Quinault.

10:00 M. BOORSCH.

58. THE RENAISSANCE AND ITS GREAT WRITERS. An analysis of the Renaissance as it expressed itself in the works of the leading authors of France in the sixteenth century. A careful study of the writings and ideas of Rabelais, Ronsard, du Bellay, d'Aubigné, and Montaigne.

9:00 M. COINDREAU.

63. EXPLICATIONS DE TEXTES. Reading and interpretation of French texts, according to a method extensively used in French schools. Demonstrations and criticisms by the instructor, written preparation and oral practice by the students.

8:00 M. MORISSET.

Note: All students, especially doctorate candidates, who are working on a problem of literary research or any other academic project, should not fail to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Personal interviews and consultations will be arranged with members of the staff who specialize in the same field.
V. Oral Practice

Directeur d'études, M. Thomas

74. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Carefully selected groups, limited to ten students; intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. A detailed program for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation. (Required for the Master's degree.)

9:00, 10:00, 12:00 Mlle Bruneau, Mme Leymarie.

75. CONVERSATION AND VOCABULARY. A systematic course, based on a daily two-hour plan, for students who understand French readily but need to gain confidence and efficiency in speaking. The students will: 1. attend a required general meeting, for a thorough study of the topics and materials to be used the next day in the practice sections; 2. in these sections, carry on actual conversation on the topics and with the material presented on the preceding day. (Undergraduate credit only.)

General meeting at 8:00 M. Thomas.

Sections: 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 Mmes Orangers, Söderlindli, Echardt.

76. ELEMENTS OF ORAL PRACTICE. A systematic course, based on the aural-oral method, for students unaccustomed to hearing or speaking French. The students will: 1. listen to specially-made recordings and take from dictation the topics and materials to be used in their oral practice, the next day; 2. converse, in small sections, on the topics and with the material gathered by them on the preceding day. (Undergraduate credit only.)

General meeting at 2:00 M. Thomas.

Sections, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 Mme Thomas, Vercier.

Note: Enrollment in all Oral Practice courses is on a tentative basis. At the end of the first week, students will be assigned to the proper course, according to their ability.

CURRICULUM REGULATIONS

Credits Two credits are allowed for each course, unless otherwise indicated. All courses carry graduate credit, except 14 (Intermediate Composition), 15 (The Grammar of Spoken French), 24 (Elementary Phonetics), 75 (Conversation and Vocabulary), and 76 (Elements of Oral Practice). All courses carry undergraduate credit. Courses 11 (Stylistics) and 12 (Advanced Composition) may with the consent of the Dean be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of the courses is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees Candidates for the Master’s degree must pass, before completion of their work, one advanced course at least in each of the following fields: Language (Course 12, or 11), Phonetics (23 or 22), Methods (31 or 34), Civilization (44, or any other civilization course in Group IV), and Oral Practice (74), and earn not less than 6 credits in advanced courses in Literature. Students who transfer credits for equivalent courses taken elsewhere may request release from the corresponding requirements. A special leaflet, sent on request, gives the rules governing the degree of Master of Arts in French. (For the D.M.L., see page 5.)

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of French No student will be admitted unless he is able and willing to use only French at all times, during the seven weeks of the session. Each student, when enrolled, will sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The School reserves the right to refuse admission, at the opening of the session, to any student who fails to satisfy this basic requirement, and to dismiss, at any time, students who wilfully break the rule. (See page 3).

A ‘General Information’ leaflet, sent on request, will give all the details of procedure for admission.

Consultations The office of the Director is in East Forest Hall; that of the Dean is in Le Château. The entire staff of the School is at the disposal of all students for counselling, at regular consultation hours announced early in the session, or by appointment.

Books The collections of French books, in the College Library and the Château contain over 12,000 volumes dealing with all phases of French study—language, literature, history, civilization, art, and teaching methods. General supplies, dictionaries and textbooks published in this country can be purchased at the College Bookstore, in the Student Union. La Librairie française, in Carr Hall, attempts to reproduce a bookshop in France, handling French classics and reference works, but specializing in contemporary novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.

Realia Museum A unique collection of illustrative material—provincial costumes, models of regional houses and furniture, dolls, Guignol accessories, children’s books, magazines, games, posters, postcards and photographs, also extensive files of other suggestions, and appropriate addresses—is on display, and may be consulted during regular daily hours.

Language Laboratory and Phonetics Center Available to all students is this modern center for the integrated use of scientific methods and equipment in all phases of language learning. It is equipped with a disc-cutting machine, tape recorders and play-backs, electric phonographs, individual listening-and-recording rooms, and a large collection of recordings on tapes. The Laboratory is open during regular hours, with trained assistants in charge, and consultations are arranged with members of the staff for individual coaching and correction of recordings.

Other Equipment In addition to the Realia Museum and the Language Laboratory, the School is well supplied with all types of diversified equipment—maps, charts, film strips and slides on French geography, history and art. Silent and sound movies of an instructional nature are frequently shown and discussed. Extensive use is made of mimeographed or lithographed material, each class being supplied with outlines, bibliographies, and exercises, free or at nominal cost.

Planned Activities The organized activities of the School are designed to make the life of the students as enjoyable and as profitable as possible:
Formal lectures, or informal "causeries," are occasionally presented by the Director, other professors, or visiting guest lecturers.

A weekly "Gazette" is published by the School, giving advance notice of all interesting events, information about job openings, etc.

Every Sunday morning, the College Chapel is taken over by the French School for an hour of instrumental and vocal music, and readings from spiritual or philosophical writings. The French School Choir of one hundred voices is a celebrated feature.

In cooperation with the other Language Schools, the French School also presents foreign moving pictures, on Wednesday afternoons and evenings, and chamber music or vocal concerts by guest artists, on Sunday evenings.

Picnics, community sings, sports, and a picturesque buffet lawn-supper offer further occasions for continued association with the faculty and easy, spontaneous, use of the language.

Above all, the School is able to offer five dramatic presentations during the summer, usually on Friday nights. Carefully prepared, with painstaking attention to scenery, lighting, costuming, and staging, they always attract a large and appreciative audience, provide relaxation, and acquaint the teacher-students with simple, yet effective, plays that can be duplicated in their own schools without undue effort.

Dormitories The main dormitories of the French School are Le Château, Forest Hall, and Battell North, Center and South.

The identifying feature of the French School, and a cherished landmark of the campus, le Château was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. It contains two salons, two classrooms, a library, and the offices of the Dean.
In Forest Hall, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, all rooms are single. In addition to beautiful reception and dining rooms, it contains the offices of the Director.

Battle North, Center and South, on the approach to the Château, are built in a modified Georgian style, with pleasant rooms of modern design.

Dining Halls In the dining halls that serve the School, the students gather at tables for seven or nine, each table presided over by a member of the staff. Students and teachers rotate according to a prearranged schedule, enabling all to get better acquainted.

Scholarships For the summer of 1958, twelve scholarships of one hundred dollars each and sixteen scholarships of seventy-five dollars each are available, to be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

- Two James Richardson Scholarships, by Mrs. James Richardson of Providence, R. I.;
- The Stella Christie Scholarship, by Mrs. C. C. Conover of Kansas City;
- The Berthe des Combes Favard Scholarship, by the Cercle Français of Chicago;
- Several scholarships, by anonymous donors;
- An unspecified number of scholarships, by the French Government;
- A Mlle Léa Binand Scholarship, established by Mrs. Robert Christie, of Montclair, N. J., in honor of a member of long standing of the French School and the Middlebury College French Department Faculties, to be awarded through l’Amicale de Middlebury;
- Also, two $100 dollar and two full-tuition scholarships, by l’Amicale de Middlebury;
- the Edith Packer Scholarship, in memory of a friend of long standing of the French School, one of the founders of L’Amicale; and
- the John D. Brennan Scholarship, in memory of one of the first members of L’Amicale, a French School graduate, prematurely deceased in a promising teaching career.

Self-Help The only other way in which a student may assist in defraying his expenses is by waiting on table in the French dining halls, or by helping with kitchen work. Remuneration may vary, depending on the type of work done, but will, in any case, cover the expense of board.

Scholarship and Self-Help Applications Application blanks for either form of financial aid may be obtained from the Dean’s Office. They must be filed before April 10th in order to be considered for the first listing of awards. Announcement of awards is made about May 1st.

Graduate School in France Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of French in France. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Paris, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Placement Service The French School maintains an active file of offers of teaching positions. This service is available to students without charge.
Amicale de Middlebury  This Association of Alumni, Professors, Students, and Friends, of the French School is destined to maintain the spirit of fellowship and comradeship among all those who have been associated with the School, or who approve of its aims; and to promote activities designed to further those aims. Particulars will be sent on request.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, admission to the school, scholarships, self-help and the ‘Amicale’ should be addressed to the Dean of the French Summer School, Le Château, Middlebury, Vt.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College Middlebury, Vt.
Deutsche Schule

(FROM JUNE 27 TO AUGUST 14)

The Middlebury German School, which will hold its thirty-first session this summer, is the forerunner of all the Middlebury Language Schools. It was founded in 1915 on the initiative of Professor Marian P. Whitney, and of Professor Lilian L. Stroebe, both of Vassar College.

Dr. Stroebe was its Director until 1917. When the School reopened in the summer of 1931, Professor Ernst Feise of the Johns Hopkins University was appointed its Director, and the School was located in the village of Bristol. Upon the retirement of Dr. Feise in 1948, Dr. Werner Neuse, who had been Dean of the School since 1932, was appointed Director. The School returned to the Middlebury Campus in 1951, where it occupies as its center Pearsons Hall, in which it was begun more than forty years ago.

A prominent scholar will again come direct from Germany to join the German School Faculty. We are happy to announce the appointment of Professor Friedrich Wilhelm Wentzlaff-Eggebert as Visiting Professor for 1958. Thanks to the generous collaboration of the Cultural Division of the Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany, the School will enjoy the presence of one of the outstanding younger scholars in the field of German literature. Professor Wentzlaff-Eggebert, who holds a professorship at the University of Mainz, and who has specialized in German Mysticism and Modern German Literature, will lecture on the 19th Century and hold a seminar on Contemporary German Literature.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

The Aims
The school is primarily designed for advanced students who, possessing a fair speaking and reading knowledge of German, wish to perfect their ability to use it, and desire to deepen and broaden their acquaintance with German literature as well as with its cultural background and the soil on which it has grown. A limited number of undergraduates who are strongly recommended by their instructors may be admitted.

Admission
See page 3. Since the success of the school and the benefit derived from attending it depend on the creation of an atmosphere of intimate group consciousness and the carrying out of a carefully planned program of six weeks, participation in all official activities of the school, such as lectures, after-dinner gatherings, and singing is obligatory. Students not wishing to participate in the social life of the school can be accepted only in very rare cases with the consent of the Director and after an examination in which they have proved their excellence in handling the language. They are, however, expected to take part in the daily singing and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs.

Accommodations The School’s headquarters, dormitory for women, and Social Hall is in Pearsons Hall, the same building in which forty years ago the first German School was opened. The common dining hall is in Willard House. The office of the Director is in Hillcrest. Students and faculty will rotate at the tables at mealtime according to a fixed schedule so as to enable all to get acquainted. After the week-day noon meal, German songs are sung in the social room at Pearsons.

Lectures and Plays Beside the Lecture Series, there will be readings, games, plays, and dancing after dinner on a regular schedule. “Literarische Sonntagsandachten,” not conflicting with local church services, will be held every Sunday morning.

Recreation and Sports On the first three Saturdays, the school organizes trips or hikes into the near-by Green Mountains or to lakes in the Champlain Valley. Faculty members regularly participate in these outings, and students will enjoy this period of week-end relaxation during which the foreign language is used in an atmosphere different from that of the classroom. On Tuesday evenings all students are expected to join in the folk dances which are taught on the lawn at the foot of Pearsons.

Bookstore At the Bücherstube in Pearsons Hall books used in the courses may be purchased; also other books imported directly from Germany will be offered for sale at moderate prices.

Opportunities for Service All waiters and waitresses in the German School dining hall must be able to speak German. Opportunity is therefore offered to a limited number of students to earn their board in return for their service in the kitchen or dining hall. Those interested should file application blanks with the Director of the School before April 15.

Scholarships The German School offers four scholarships of $100.00 each for the 1958 session. Besides these, five special scholarships are available:

- The Martin Sommerfeld Memorial Scholarship, established by the students and faculty in memory of Professor Sommerfeld who taught in the summer of 1939.
- The O. W. Hofmann Scholarship, in memory of the late Mr. Hofmann by his family.
- The Arno Schirokauer Memorial Scholarship, established by FIDES in memory of Professor Schirokauer who formerly taught in the German School.
- The Ernst Feise Scholarship, established by FIDES in honor of Professor Feise who was the Director of the School from 1931 to 1948.
- The Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation Scholarship.

These five scholarships are from $75.00 to $145.00 each. An unspecified number of scholarships by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany are also offered. All are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application blanks may be obtained from the Director of the German School and must be filed before April 15. The awards and the appointments will be announced by May 1.

FIDES Former students, faculty, and friends of the German School have formed a Vereinigung der Freunde der Deutschen Schule (FIDES) whose aim is to keep all friends of the school informed about its activities, and to preserve and promote the spirit of Verbundenheit between them. All members are cordially welcomed to visit the school during the summer.

Address Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School, should be addressed to Prof. Werner Neuse, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
Scuola Italiana

(From June 27 to August 14)

The Italian school of Middlebury College was founded in 1932 by Dr. Gabriella Bosano, Professor Emeritus of Italian at Wellesley College. Dr. Camillo P. Merlino, of Boston University, was its Director for ten years, beginning with the 1938 session. Since 1947, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, of the Institute of Languages and Linguistics, Georgetown University, has been the Director.

The Director welcomes the return of Dr. Mauro Calamandrei, the first to occupy the chair of American History at the University of Florence, who will be Visiting Professor for the 1958 session. He is happy to announce that Dr. Margherita Dinale, of Smith College, will join this year's faculty, and that Dr. Bianca Calabresi, Dr. Pierina Castiglione and Dr. Marisa Lederer, Italian School faculty members of long standing, will complete the staff.

The curriculum will include, in addition to the language and culture courses offered regularly each year, the following courses of special interest: LUDOVICO ARIOSTO AND HIS TIMES and a course on CONTEMPORARY ITALY.

The Italian School is pleased to announce that for the 1958 session it has available a considerable number of gift scholarships, including ten Cesare Barbieri tuition scholarships and the scholarships given by the Cultural Division of the Italian Embassy.

The eighth annual meeting of the Italian School Alumni and Friends Association will be held in Middlebury, July 11–13.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

1. Language

1. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. A thorough review of Italian grammar; vocabulary building; free composition; translation. This course is intended for students who have a good elementary knowledge of the language; it aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in the use of the fundamental principles of grammar.

9:00 SIGNORA DINALE.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. An advanced course for students possessing a good knowledge of Italian. It will consist of translations from English to Italian of texts of increasing difficulty, and practice in original composition. Frequent reference will be made to grammar and syntax in the systematic study of idioms.

9:00 SIGNORA CASTIGLIONE.

3. ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Daily training in current Italian, designed to help the student gain assurance in self-expression in the language. Word study, oral reports on specific topics, and a systematic building up of the conversational vocabulary will be based on assigned topics. Use will be made of the tape recording facilities of the Language Laboratory.

8:00 SIGNORA LEDERER.

4. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice, public speaking and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports, oral criticism of books and articles.

11:00 SIGNORA LEDERER.
5. PHONETICS. A practical study of Italian phonetics, based on the reading aloud of carefully chosen prose and poetry selections; emphasis not only on the correct pronunciation of Italian sounds, but also on the proper intonation of spoken Italian; classroom work will be integrated by extensive use of records and tape recordings.

10:00 Signora Castiglione.

6. STYLISTICS This course is designed to meet, through carefully planned exercises, the needs of those who have already acquired general proficiency in the language. It aims to develop natural fluency, both in writing and speaking, through emphasizing the difference between what is merely correct and what is Italian.

9:00 Signora Calabresi.

II. Methods of Teaching

10. THE TEACHING OF ITALIAN. (To be offered in 1959.)

III. Literature and Culture

11. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CULTURE. I. (To be offered in 1959.) (Middle Ages to the Sixteenth Century.)

12. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CULTURE. II. A survey of the major manifestations of Italian genius, from the 17th century to the present, in literature, art, philosophy, and science.

11:00 Signor Calamandrei.

13. ITALIAN PROSE MASTERPIECES. (To be offered in 1959.)

14. DANTE AND HIS TIMES (THE INFERNO). In the course of three summers the Divina Commedia is read and analyzed in the light of the literary, political and religious ideals of the Middle Ages. In 1958 the Inferno will be the object of special study. This course may be taken for credit in three successive summers.

8:00 Signor Castiglione.

15. A SURVEY OF ITALIAN POETRY. A study of the main currents of Italian poetry, from the Duecento to contemporary times; brief consideration of the nature and techniques of Italian poetry; study and analisi estetica of some of its most significant examples.

12:00 Signora Dinale.

16. LUDOVICO ARIOSTO AND HIS TIMES. A study of the Italian Renaissance as it expressed itself in the work of Ludovico Ariosto. The life, the times and the art of the poet will be studied and discussed through the reading of Le Satire and L'Orlando Furioso.

10:00 Signora Calabresi.

17. CONTEMPORARY ITALY. This course aims to acquaint the student with the history of Italy since World War II. Not only political institutions and personalities, but also social and economic changes, the revival of arts and crafts (from painting and literature to the cinema, opera and fashion), the expansion of the influence of mass-media and the cultural situation will be topics of discussion.

12:00 Signor Calamandrei.

19. RESEARCH. All students, especially candidates for the doctorate who are working on a problem of research, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

Signor Castiglione and Staff.
Credits  Two credits or semester hours are allowed for each course, and all courses count toward the Master's degree. (See also page 4.) Course 2 (Adv. Grammar and Comp.) and Course 6 (Stylistics) may be taken twice for credit, as the material of the course varies each year. Course 14 (Dante) may be taken three times for credit, once on the Inferno, once on the Purgatorio, and once on the Paradiso.

Use of Italian  Students must sign and keep a formal pledge to use Italian exclusively for the duration of the session. The traditionally congenial atmosphere and warm spirit of cooperation at the Italian School contribute much to making the student feel that the exclusive use of Italian is both a natural and pleasant task.

Italian Dormitory  Forest Hall West, one of the most attractive buildings on the Middlebury College campus, will be headquarters for the Italian School in 1958, both for dormitory and dining hall and for the School's offices. Equipped with several social rooms and surrounded by spacious lawns shaded by trees, this dormitory lends itself to the development of an atmosphere of friendly informality so conducive to "oral practice"—one of the main features of the Middlebury experience. Dr. and Mrs. Castiglione and the other faculty members will reside in Forest Hall, thus actively promoting the spirit of good fellowship in an Italian atmosphere.

The Italian Dining Room  In the attractive dining hall of the Italian School, the hum of conversation is natural and spontaneous. Prompted and guided by understanding instructors who preside at each table, the students quickly overcome their linguistic shyness. In order to get better acquainted with one another and with all the instructors, students are required to rotate according to a fixed schedule.

Activities  The morning hours will be given over to class work, leaving the afternoon free for recreation and study. Students and teachers will meet frequently in the evening for readings, lectures, choral assemblies, and social gatherings. All students are expected to take part in the weekly choral assembly and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. The school picnics, informal instruction in folk dances, tennis, the popular game of "bocce," as well as hiking, afford further pleasant relaxation. Members of the Italian School are cordially invited to attend the concerts and films sponsored by the five Language Schools.

Books  A well-balanced and constantly expanding collection of Italian books, housed in the College Library, amply provides for the needs of the students. In addition, textbooks and other aids for the teaching of Italian will be available for examination. In Forest West there is also an Italian bookshop at which students will be able to purchase the texts required for class work, as well as dictionaries and a variety of books of classic and modern Italian literature.

Scholarships  For the summer of 1958, a number of scholarships are available. These will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Director before April 15; awards will be announced about May 1. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

The Italian Teachers Club of Hartford, Conn., Scholarship offered for the nineteenth consecutive year.

The Rochester Scholarship offered for the fifteenth consecutive year by "IL SOLCO," Italian Cultural Society of Rochester, N. Y.

The Mastrangelo Memorial Scholarship offered by friends of the late Rocco Mastrangelo for the seventh year.

Three scholarships offered for the sixth year by Mrs. Lena D. Wolff, of New York City.

A scholarship given by the Association of Alumni and Friends of the Italian School of Middlebury College. This year it is offered in memory of the late Josephine Adamo.

An unspecified number of scholarships offered by the Cultural Division of the Italian Embassy.

Ten Cesare Barbieri tuition scholarships, made possible by a gift from the Cesare Barbieri Endowment.

Self-Help Another important way in which students may assist in defraying their expenses is by waiting on table in the Italian School dining room. All waiters and waitresses are students at the school who are able to use Italian exclusively in the dining room. The remuneration for this service is their board. Those interested should make application to Dr. Castiglione before April 15; awards will be announced about May 1.

Alumni and Friends Association Membership in the Association of Alumni and Friends of the Italian School of Middlebury College, established in 1950, is open to students, past and present, faculty members and friends of the Italian School. The aims of the Association are "to encourage and advance, culturally and materially, the Italian School," to keep its members informed of the activities of the School and its students, and to maintain the warm spirit of cordiality which the members associate with the Italian School. In addition to regional meetings arranged by local committees, the Association holds each year both a winter meeting, during the Christmas vacation, and a summer meeting in Middlebury.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning admission, credits, and choice of courses should be addressed to the Director of the Middlebury College Italian Summer School, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, Institute of Languages and Linguistics, Georgetown University, 1719 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C.

Correspondence concerning fees, rooms, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
Institute of Soviet Studies

Conducted entirely in Russian
Director: DR. MISCHA H. FAYER
JUNE 27 TO AUGUST 14, 1958

Courses are offered in Russian by outstanding native authorities in the fields of the sciences, economics, foreign policy, government, geography, the press and propaganda techniques.

Aim To give the specialist in the above fields near native fluency in Russian and competence in the technical terminology of his specialization, not only for reading and research, but also for oral use; and to train students for diplomatic, scientific and other careers. The courses are especially valuable for specialists, scientists, and students preparing for cultural exchange.

Organization Students enrolled in the Institute will enjoy all the privileges and share in all the activities of the Russian School. They will be pledged to the exclusive use of Russian; they will share the dormitory and dining room facilities of the School; they will attend the evening lectures, concerts, plays, and all other extra-curricular activities in the Russian atmosphere.

Admission Requirements Adequate command of Russian for advanced specialized study in the language, and its exclusive use in and outside the classroom. Previous training in one or more of the above-mentioned fields.

The Russian School of Middlebury College was founded in 1945 by the Director, Dr. Mischa H. Fayer. Starting with 40 students and a staff of four, the School's facilities and faculty have increased to accommodate 100 students. The rapid growth of the School testifies to the increasing need in our country for closer knowledge of Russia, past and present, and for deeper understanding of recent trends in her development. Mindful of this fact, the Director has organized a program of courses to answer present needs and to prepare American specialists in the field of Russian studies.

The Director is happy to announce the establishment of an Institute of Soviet Studies in the summer of 1958 in conjunction with the Russian School, made possible by a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation. In addition to the specialized and technical courses offered by the Institute, the offerings of the Russian School will also be of great interest to government and armed forces personnel and to students of history, political science and the sciences. In its fourteenth session, the School, in combination with its Institute, is equipped as never before, to provide thorough training for students of Russia's humanistic culture, as well as for those preparing for teaching, diplomatic, scientific, and other careers.

The School is fortunate in having, as Visiting Professor, Mrs. Catherine Wolkonsky, Head of the Department of Russian at Vassar College; also Mrs. Nadezhda Yershov, and Dr. Serge Zenkovsky, member of the Russian Research Program at Harvard, who was on leave from the Russian School in 1951.

The curriculum will include the following lecture and seminar courses: Fyodor Dostoevsky: His Works and Influence, by the Director; Methods of Teaching Russian, by Prof. Wolkonsky; Stylistics and History of the Russian Language, by Dr. Poltoratzky; Literary Masters of the Nineteenth Century and Survey of Russian Literature to 1800 by Prof. P. Yershov; Contemporary Russia, by Dr. Zenkovsky.

EVENING LECTURES

An especially rich extra-curricular program is planned, including lectures by the following guest speakers: Philip E. Mosely, Alexander Dallin and Michael Karpovich.

COURSES OF STUDY

Survey courses are intended as a basis for more specialized courses in succeeding sessions. The research course (50) will afford opportunity for concentrated study on a subject of major interest. Except for certain basic courses offered every summer, advanced work is on a rotation basis, giving the student an opportunity to cover thoroughly, in a period of three or four years, the fundamental phases of Russian thought and letters.

Students in the Russian School may also enroll, without extra charge, for one or more of the specialized courses in the Institute of Soviet Studies, with the consent of the Director, if they have sufficient preparation in the special field.

I. Language

1. GRAMMAR REVIEW AND ORAL DRILL. Thorough and systematic review of Russian grammar and basic vocabulary. Drill on pronunciation, conversation, and reading. Intended for students whose background in Russian is insufficient to enable them to carry a full load at the graduate level. (Undergraduate credit only.) Mr. Fersen.

11. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty. Study of synonyms and idioms; dictation. Practical application of grammatical principles. Mrs. Vacquier.

12. INTERMEDIATE CONVERSATION AND ORAL PRACTICE. Daily training in conversational Russian, designed to provide the student with assurance in self-expression and a basic active vocabulary. Oral reports and class discussions requiring active student participation. Facilities of the Language Laboratory will be used, including listening to tape recordings and self-testing. Mr. Fersen, Mrs. Yershov.

14. PRACTICAL PHONETICS. A course intended for students at the intermediate level who need systematic training in Russian pronunciation. Methodical comparison of English and Russian sounds. The Language Laboratory will be used. Enrollment will be restricted to those most in need of remedial work. Mr. Pressman.

21. ADVANCED COMPOSITION AND GRAMMAR. This course is designed for students with a good foundation in grammar, but lacking certainty in direct application of their knowledge. Careful examination of difficult points of grammar, with emphasis on syntactical constructions. Practice in the use of idiomatic expressions. The work will consist of exercises, original compositions, and class discussions. Mr. Kalinin, Mrs. Wolkonsky.

22. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. Prepared discussion on assigned topics with definite vocabulary preparation; oral reports; oral criticisms of books or articles. Intended primarily to develop self-confidence in expressing ideas in Russian. (Not open to students enrolled in course 210.) Mr. Kalinin.

23. STYLISTICS. Intended for students who wish to develop greater precision in expression and a finer feeling for shades of meaning and style. Translations of texts of various types and difficulty will be combined with written compositions. Mrs. Poltoratzky.

25. HISTORY OF THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE. A survey of the development of Russian literary language; its phonology, morphology and semantics. Effects of popular speech and literacy. Readings illustrating important phases in the development of the language, with special attention to modern Russian and to linguistic changes since the Revolution. Mrs. Poltoratzky.

II. Literature

30. LITERARY MASTERS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. An analysis of the social, political, and artistic trends of the nineteenth century, as reflected in the fiction of Pushkin, Lermontov, Gogol, Turgenev, Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Saltykov-Shchedrin, and Chekhov. Mr. Yershov.

32. SURVEY OF RUSSIAN LITERATURE TO 1800. An introduction to the literature of Russia from earliest times to Pushkin, with special emphasis on such early masterpieces as Slavo e Polku Igorove and the Byliny. Most of the time, however, will be devoted to 18th century authors. Illustrative examples only in old Russian will be used. Lectures, readings, and reports will require only the knowledge of modern Russian. Ample opportunity will be provided for class discussions. Mr. Yershov.

38. FYODOR DOSTOEVSKY: HIS WORKS AND INFLUENCE. Survey of literary and ideological currents of the period (1840–1880). Dostoevsky’s works as related to other literary classics of the time. Evolution of his outlook and novelistic art. Influence at home and abroad. Lectures, oral and written reports, class discussions. Mr. Fayer.

III. Civilization

41. CONTEMPORARY RUSSIA. Starting with the development of revolutionary ideas in Russia, this course analyses the internal policies and the main trends of the foreign policies in the Soviet Union from 1917 to the present day. Particular attention will be paid to the economic growth of the Soviet state after World War II, as well as to the intellectual and educational evolution which the peoples of Russia have undergone. A survey of post-Stalin Russia will be offered in concluding lectures. Mr. Zenkovsky.

* * *

50. RESEARCH. All students, especially degree candidates, who are working on a problem of research in Russian language, literature and civilization, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the School staff. Personal consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it. Mr. Fayer, with the collaboration of members of the staff.

IV. Methods

60. METHODS OF TEACHING RUSSIAN. Course planned for teachers in high schools and colleges. Study of current methods, plans and techniques. Analysis of textbooks, programs; teacher’s laboratory; class preparation. Mrs. Wolkonsky.

Credits and Requirements. All courses carry two credits toward the M.A. and D.M.L. degrees with the exception of course 1 which carries credit toward the A.B. degree.

These courses, or their equivalents, are required for the M.A. degree:
Group I—21 or 23, 22, 26 or 36; and one of the following: 24, 25, 60.
Group II—31 and 32; one survey course of the 19th century (28, 30, 33, 34); one course on an individual author (29, 35, 38, 39).
Group III—Two courses (40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47). The following courses are required for the D.M.L., in addition to the foregoing:
A civilization course; a course on one of the individual authors; 30, 33, 34 and 37; and all of the following not taken previously: 24, 25, 60. For all other requirements, see the special leaflet for D.M.L. candidates.
LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Russian  To qualify for admission, students must be able and willing to speak only Russian during the entire session, even in their rooms and off campus. At the opening of the School each student will be required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. Although it is the duty of the faculty to enforce this rule at all times, their sympathetic encouragement to use the language freely will, in a short time, make it appear as the only language natural in the congenial, friendly Russian atmosphere. The School reserves the right to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule.

Living Accommodations  Stewart Hall, completed last year, the newest and one of the finest dormitories on the campus, will be the headquarters of the Russian School, providing attractive accommodations for the growing school. The view from Stewart lounge is superb. The Director’s Office is in Hillcrest. In Hepburn Dining Hall, students will eat in small groups, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. A system of rotation at meals provides opportunity for all to become better acquainted. The large Social Hall in the Student Union Building is used exclusively by the Russian School.

Activities  All extra-curricular activities play an important part in mastering the language, and students are expected to participate actively. The schedule of classes is arranged to leave the afternoons free for study and recreation. Picnics, excursions to nearby lakes and mountains, “vecherinki” with musical and dramatic entertainments, lectures by instructors and guest speakers, informal singing, and Russian movies, provide ample recreational activity. Regular evenings for study of Russian dances have been set aside. Weekly sings are held in the Social Hall. Several plays will be staged under the direction of Professor Yershov. One of the highlights of the session will be the fifth annual Alumni Weekend—July 25–27.

Books In addition to textbooks, the Russian Bookstore, located in Stewart Hall, carries classics and up-to-date novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction. General supplies, and textbooks published in this country, may be purchased at the College Bookstore.

Realia Collection The purpose of this collection is to acquaint prospective teachers with visual aids which may prove helpful in their teaching; also to display material illustrative of the Russian creative genius—pictures, sculpture, icons, costumes, architectural models, objets d'art, etc., some of which are for sale. The Collection, housed in the Russian School Bookstore in Stewart Hall, will be open during regular Bookstore hours.

Language Laboratory Russian School students are urged to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by the Language Laboratory, including equipment for speech recording, play-backs with earphones, and individual practice rooms. The laboratory is open at regular hours. Mr. Pressman will be available for assisting all those interested in improving their speech.

Self-Help Students may assist in defraying their expenses by waiting on table in the Russian dining hall. The remuneration is board. Those interested should apply to the Director before April 15. Appointments will be announced about May 1.
Scholarships  A limited number of scholarships of $50 and $75 is available. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance are eligible. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application must be made to the Director before April 15. Awards will be announced about May 1. The Alumni Organization also provides a Scholarship. Application should be made to the President or Secretary of the Organization by April 15. Only former students of the Russian School are eligible.

The Anastasia Pressman Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a student working for a graduate degree at Middlebury, preferably a prospective teacher of Russian. Application should be made to the Director before April 15.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School should be addressed to Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, Director of the Russian Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
Since its founding in 1917 the Middlebury Spanish School has been a center of formation and guidance for those interested in the learning and teaching of Spanish, as well as in a better understanding of the diversity of cultures and literatures composing the Hispanic world. A well-coordinated program, entrusted to a select group of experienced teachers, serves the aims of the School in its present forty-second session.

In the absence of the Director, on a research trip to Spain, Professor Joaquín Casaldueiro will serve, as on similar occasions, as Acting Director.

The School is pleased to announce the appointment as Visiting Professor of the distinguished hispanist, Professor Camila Henríquez-Ureña, who returns to us after several years of absence, as well as that of Professor Francisco Ayala who, besides being a sociologist of note and well-known critic, is one of the leading Spanish prose writers. A new member of the staff will be the philologist and critic, Joaquín González Muela.

The School welcomes back the rest of its staff, all members of former summers, and builders of the unique, cordial atmosphere of the Spanish School.

COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

A. PRONUNCIATION. This course will attack the problem of pronunciation from a practical viewpoint. It will be divided into small sections, and the classroom exercises will be supplemented by frequent use of the Language Laboratory. (Undergraduate credit only.) 8:00 Sra. de Asensio

B. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR. A thorough and systematic review of Spanish grammar, syntax, and basic vocabulary; constant oral and written practice. This course is intended for students who have only an incomplete mastery of the language and who would be incapable of the intensive work required in Course 2. (Undergraduate credit only.) 9:00 Sra. de Álvarez-Morales.

C. ELEMENTS OF ORAL PRACTICE. For students who are unaccustomed to hearing or speaking Spanish although they may have an extensive “passive” vocabulary. (Undergraduate credit only.)

1. ORAL WORK AND SELF-EXPRESSION IN SPANISH. Designed to help students in the process of gaining a better command of the language by requiring the use of a varied vocabulary and at the same time accuracy of expression. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 Sr. Álvarez, Sra. Unamuno, Sr. Almendros.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR. A systematic review of the fundamental principles of grammar. Abundant practice is provided in writing idiomatic Spanish and in the practical application of grammatical principles. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00 Sr. ASENSIO, Sr. RUIZ, Sra. ASENSIO.

3. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. Aims to help students gain assurance in writing correct Spanish and is designed for those who, having a good grammatical foundation, lack precision in the direct application of that knowledge. 9:00, 12:00, 12:00 Srs. González López, Asensio, Marichal.

4. PHONETICS. A thorough study of practical phonetics, combining theoretical lessons with practical exercises, for the improvement of the student’s pronunciation. 9:00, 12:00 Srs. Gimeno, González Muela.

5. HISTORY OF SPANISH SYNTAX. An historical survey dealing with the most characteristic features of Spanish syntax with special attention to their origin and development. 10:00 Sr. Ruiz.

6. LITERARY EXPRESSION AND STYLE. A study of the main characteristics of the Spanish language based on the analysis of representatives texts, with practical exercises, composition and translation. 11:00 Sra. Henríquez-Ureña.

7. HISTORY OF THE SPANISH LANGUAGE. This course will give specific information about the principal problems of Spanish philology, as a necessary background for teachers of this language. 11:00 Sr. González Muela.

II. Methods

10. METHODS OF TEACHING SPANISH. A study and discussion of the leading plans now in operation in the teaching of foreign languages at the Elementary, Junior High and Senior High levels. Attention will also be given to a study of the methods, techniques and materials used in Language Laboratories. Observation of a demonstration class.

11:00 Sr. Nolfi.

III. Literature and Civilization

17. SPANISH CULTURE FROM 1833 TO 1898. A study of the tendencies, movements, historical and intellectual facts in Spanish culture from the Romantic epoch to 1898, a critical date in the development of contemporary Spain.

11:00 Sr. Marichal.

20. THE DEVELOPMENT OF SPANISH LITERATURE. This course presents in a comprehensive way the main features of the great literary creations of Spanish literature since its origins to our times. The aim of this course is to provide the student with the necessary background for an intelligent understanding of more specialized courses.

8:00 Sr. González López.

29. FORM AND MEANING OF THE QUIJOTE. This course will be devoted exclusively to the study of the first part of the Quijote. One or two chapters will be read each day and will serve as a basis for lectures and discussions. The main purpose of the course will be to apprehend the meaning of the novel through a detailed study of its form.

8:00 Sr. Casalduero.

30. THE DEVELOPMENT OF SPANISH AMERICAN FICTION. Through an analysis of its most representative manifestations, this course will present the unfolding of the novel and the short story in Spanish America during the XIX and XX centuries.

9:00 Srta. Henríquez-Ureña.

31. SPANISH AMERICAN LITERATURE. A general analysis of Spanish American literature from its early beginnings to the present day, showing the influences of geography, time, and place. Discussions, lectures, and collateral reading on the most important phases.

10:00 Sr. Álvarez-Morales.

33. EARLY SPANISH AMERICAN LITERATURE. A study of precolombian cultural expressions and of the main writers and trends of the sixteenth century, with special attention to the works of the "Cronistas de Indias."

11:00 Sr. Florit.

42. THE SPANISH GENERATION OF 1898. An outline of its collective significance for the life and literature of Spanish peoples, as well as particular studies on its most outstanding members, mainly Ganivet, Unamuno, Azorín, Baroja, and Valle-Inclán.

9:00 Sr. Ayala.

12:00 Sr. Florit.

53. THE WORLD VISION IN THE SPANISH WRITERS OF THE LATE "BARROCO." This course will deal with the interrelation of political decline and literary splendor of seventeenth century Spain. The individual attitudes of Quevedo, Gracián, Saavedra Fajardo and Calderón will be integrated into the general outline of the period.

10:00 Sr. Ayala.

Credits Two credits or semester hours will be allowed for each course unless otherwise specified. Course 3 may, with the consent of the Director, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of this course is varied each year.
Requirements for Degrees  Candidates for the Master’s Degree must pass, before the completion of their work, an advanced course in each of the following subjects: Oral Practice, Language, Phonetics, and Methods. Courses 1, 2, 3, 4, and 10 fulfill these requirements. In addition, at least 10 credits must be earned in the fields of Literature and Civilization. Students who have transferred credit for an equivalent course taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly in a cyclic form.

Use of Spanish  No student is admitted who is not willing and able to use Spanish exclusively while in attendance. Each student is required to pledge his word of honor to observe this regulation.

Books  General supplies and text books published in this country may be purchased at the College Bookstore, in the Student Union Building. The Librería of the Spanish School is located in the social room of Hepburn Hall. Here the required books in the literature and civilization courses, and other titles printed abroad, are on sale.

The College Library  has a Spanish library of over 6,000 titles, covering the areas of language, literature, history and civilization, selected to fill the needs of the students at every level. Representative periodicals of Spain and Spanish America are received, in order to inform the students of the most recent trends in literature and education in the Spanish speaking world.

Accommodations  One of the most attractive features of the school is the friendliness which exists between the faculty and students, in no small measure due to the fact that the faculty and staff, as well as all students, reside in the dormitories. Gifford, Hepburn, and Starr Halls provide attractive and comfortable accommodations for the increasing enrollment of the Spanish School.

The office of the Director is in Hepburn Hall; the office of the Dean is in Hillcrest.

All members of the school take their meals together in the Gifford dining halls. A system of rotation provides an opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

Activities Activities outside the classroom are an important feature of life in the Spanish School. Whether it is a picnic, a game of croquet, a tennis or golf match, a dance or a hand of cards, the object is to live it and play it in Spanish and to broaden one's acquaintanceship with every phase of Spanish life and customs.

The singing of Spanish folk songs, the presentation of good Spanish theatre, the attendance at Spanish moving pictures, all are designed to add to the student's enjoyment and knowledge.

Scholarships Several scholarships of fifty dollars each will be available this summer. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance, are eligible. These awards will be made on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Dean before April 15. The awards will be announced by May 1.

The Juan A. Centeno Memorial Scholarship was established in the summer of 1949 by the students and faculty of the Middlebury Spanish Summer School, in memory of the beloved teacher who was Director of the School for fifteen years. The fund is still growing, and further contributions will be gladly received. The income from this permanent fund provides a scholarship for a specially deserving student in the Spanish School.

Self-Help A limited number of students are provided an opportunity to earn their board by acting as waiters and waitresses in the Spanish dining halls. A speaking knowledge of Spanish is essential for one of these positions. Those interested should apply to the Dean before April 15; awards will be announced by May 1.

Graduate School in Spain Middlebury College also conducts a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Madrid, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Correspondence Communications regarding admission, courses, credits and other academic information should be addressed to Prof. Samuel Guarnaccia, Dean of the Spanish Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning fees and rooms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
The Graduate Schools of French in France and Spanish in Spain

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE also conducts a Graduate School of French in France, and a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. Forty-one American students are now enrolled in the University of Paris under this plan, and forty-two at the University of Madrid.

The students spend the academic year on a coordinated program of advanced instruction in linguistics, phonetics, literature, history, fine arts and social institutions. These courses are followed in the Faculty of Letters, or other divisions and institutes of the Universities of Paris or Madrid. The students work under the close guidance and supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. At the close of the year, final examinations are administered under his direction, and the successful candidates receive the Middlebury Master of Arts degree, in addition to any foreign certificates or diplomas which they may be able to earn.

A preliminary summer of preparation at the Middlebury Summer School is normally required, and only those who prove themselves qualified are allowed to enroll. Members of the group are treated as mature graduate students. They make their own arrangements for transportation, board and room, with the advice and guidance of the Middlebury Director. The director facilitates worthwhile social contacts, and assists their plans for travel, visits to museums, and attendance at theaters and concerts. Each member is officially enrolled as a graduate student at Middlebury College, and pays his tuition fee to the college; this covers all enrollment, examination, and other academic fees in the foreign university. Veterans may use their G.I. credits under this plan.

Teachers or graduate students who are interested in this program are invited to write for the complete bulletin containing detailed information to:
